

Building Permit fees.

Commercial building permit fees shall be based upon the actual contract price of all new construction, additions, repairs and alterations.

Residential building permit fees shall be based upon actual contract price of all additions, repairs, and alterations.

- a. A minimum permit fee of $50.00 shall be charged for any work governed by the requirements of this Code when the construction cost is less than $2,000.00
- b. For all such work costing in excess of the $2,000.00, the fee shall be $5.00 per $1,000.00 or fraction thereof of the cost of construction.

New residential building permit fees shall have a set base fee and a cost per square foot under roof and including all habitable square footage on additional floors.

- a. New residential homes permit fees shall be $350.00 plus $.15 per square feet under roof to include all habitable rooms on additional floors.